A Season of Events for MPHS

Dear Friends and Members,

As members of the Mastic Peninsula Historical Society, we take pride in fulfilling our duties to observe, record and educate. Sometimes events unfold so quickly that, in the short term, we need to prioritize one duty over another. The past two months have been just such a time, and the need to document events as they occur has led to this quarter’s installment of our newsletter being sent out later than usual.

October 15, 2011 - MPHS booth at the Mastic Beach Harvest Festival

October 16, 2011 - MPHS members distributed our maps of ‘Historic Sites of the Tri-Hamlet Area’ during the Boy Scouts’ march of the Historic Tallmadge Trail.

Rest assured that this dark cloud does indeed have a silver lining! The next installment of the MPHS Quarterly is now just a few short weeks away! Until then, enjoy these photos of some of the events that we took part in during the closing months of 2011. The new year is already turning out to be an exciting one...

Best Regards,

Mike Lubrano, Editor

Historical Society Members Tour the Manor of St. George

On October 1, 2011, members of the Mastic Peninsula Historical Society were invited to participate in pre-scheduled tours of the Manor of St. George, and of the surrounding grounds where the 'Battle of Mastic' was fought on November 23, 1780.

Our thanks to Rob and Jeanne for arranging these tours for us.

On October 8, 2011, members of the MPHS Historic Sites Committee were afforded a rare opportunity to enter the Smith Cemetery, located on the grounds of the Manor and were allowed to photograph the tombstones for the Society's archives. Our gratitude to the George Furman for arranging this special event.
