We've been busy:

This past quarter has been a very productive one with a list of accomplishments that we are proud to share with you. We begin by congratulating the winners of the May elections for seats on our governing body. Long time member Gary Ollett is now our new Vice President, as well as heading our historical research committee.

Congratulations also to our new trustee, Joseph May. Many thanks go out to our outgoing VP Mike Lubrano for all he has done in assisting and promoting our society which includes the publishing of this newsletter. Thanks Mike.

This past June, the society had another wonderful outing at the 2nd annual Tri-Hamlet day. Tours and information were provided to the public by our membership and we look forward to next year's event. The first two chapter booklets of our area history, The first two volumes of “A History of the Mastic Peninsula” are out in print and are available.

The Historical Society is actively seeking additional photos to be included in future volumes. Anyone who has photos, documents or artifacts to share, loan or donate can contact the Mastic Peninsula Historical Society at P.O. Box 333, Mastic, NY 11950, or send e-mail to us at MPHS333@optonline.net - Story by Mike Lubrano

Local History Timeline added to MPHS Web Site

By Richard Oldham

The first edition of our local area history timeline is now available through our website www.mphistorical.org, which will be updated on a regular basis to include both historical and current events of noteworthy impact to our area.

Please take the time to read through the timeline and let us know of any additions and/or corrections you would like to see added.

Our member, Jim "Zak" Szakmary, gave a presentation in April based on his time serving in Vietnam. Thank you for your service "Zak." In May, a presentation, "Mansions on the South Shore," was given by author Chris Collora describing the history of the great mansions. We had a successful yard sale in June, another is planned for September. Check out all the photos and other interesting items on our Facebook page. We are always looking for new members. Encourage your friends and neighbors to join us in preserving our local history. If anyone wants to offer us financial support, please see the donation button on our website, www.mphistorical.org. This article compiled by Rich Oldham and Brad Shupe. Thank you for your interest.

Committee Reports

Collections Committee - Allison McGovern:

Please contact the Historical Society if you have any documents, photos or artifacts that you would like to donate.

Publications Committee - Mike Lubrano:

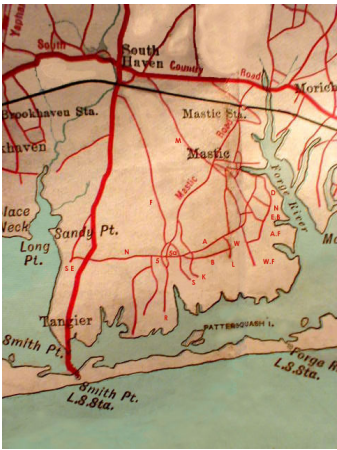

Check out our photo gallery on FaceBook. Check out our new history timeline, plus newsletters, membership applications, etc. on our website at www.mphistorical.org. The first two volumes of our local history booklets are now available. More to come.

Program Committee - Mike Lubrano: The Historical Society will be taking part in several community events this summer. Our committee chair, Mike, has been serving as a member of the Tri-Hamlet Renaissance Project Marketing Committee. Tri-Hamlet Community Day 2013 was a huge success and many people stopped by to do tombstone rubbings at the Nathaniel Woodhull Cemetery on Neighborhood Road. The committee is hard at work planning Tri-Hamlet Community Day 2014, which is set for June 7, 2014.

Membership Committee - Rich Oldham: The committee is always trying to recruit new members via our website, Facebook, local newspapers, and at events.

Fundraising Committee - Lisa Hansen: Please contact the Society if you would like to make a donation. The MPHS is a federally registered 501 (c)3 charity. We had a successful yard sale this spring. Also, a donation button has been placed on our website and on Facebook.
